To begin your video class learning experience, you must attend a MANDATORY orientation on Saturday January 6, 2007. Please check your schedule for the time and room number. The class will meet for a maximum of five Saturdays:

Orientation – January 6, 2007
Midterm Review – February 10, 2007
Midterm Exam – February 17, 2007
Final Review – March 17, 2007
Final Exam – March 24, 2007

You should order your books right away to be certain that you have them by first day of class. The Bookaneer bookstore knows what is needed for your class.

You will receive information about video tape rental ($35.00) and Channel 21 Program broadcasting at the mandatory first class meeting. After you have paid your rental fees, take your receipt to the Distance Learning office in L-24C to sign a rental agreement and pickup a set of tapes.

NEW DVDs of the video content will be available for sale at the campus Bookaneer bookstore.

For your convenience, I’ve attached a calendar of some important dates for the quarter. Some of these dates involve deadlines that you may need to keep.

Please contact me with any questions or concerns that you might have regarding video classes at Peninsula College. And, again, welcome!
