Safety

Peninsula College Security strives to provide a safe environment for students, faculty, staff and visitors supportive of education, and the daily operations of campus facilities. Security guards patrol the campus on bicycles and foot. They are available by phone or radio. Campus Security (CS) maintains an active relationship with state and local law enforcement agencies for assistance. CS is not authorized to make arrests, therefore, when the need arises, they will contact the Port Angeles police department.

PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF SEX OFFENDERS

Peninsula College is committed to providing a safe environment for the welfare of students and staff by timely and appropriate notification of the presence of a convicted sexual offender.

This notification shall be in accordance with applicable state law and shall be in such a manner that maintains safety without creating excessive anxiety among students and staff.

Pursuant to RCW 4.24.550, Peninsula College is authorized to notify the college community when knowledge is received that a registered sex offender may be expected on or near the college campus, including off-site buildings.

The extent of public disclosure of relevant and necessary information shall be directly related to:

- The level of risk posed by the offender to the community
- The locations where the offender resides, expects to reside, or is regularly found;
- The needs of the affected community members for information to enhance their individual and collective safety.
